Section II
ARAG Legal Insurance

A. Benefits Under ARAG Legal Insurance Consist of Three Parts

The person must be an Insured when each service is furnished.

Part I – Telephone Legal Advice and Consultation

This part of the benefit program provides services to Insureds through a Network Attorney via the telephone. There is no attorney fee for these services.

The preventive legal services provided by the Network Attorney over the telephone are those contained in the List of Benefits that involve the Insured’s legal affairs, and are not services that involve a visit to an attorney’s office or are otherwise not covered. The services described will be provided to an Insured at the discretion of the Network Attorney. The Network Attorney will not charge an Insured for these services. Telephone Legal Advice and Consultation are not available for matters outside the jurisdiction of the United States and Puerto Rico.

Part II – Legal Representation

Attorney’s fees for most covered (and not excluded) services are 100% paid-in-full when using a Network Attorney. Or use a non-network attorney of your choice and be reimbursed up to the indemnity benefit as stated in your policy. For a detailed description of the services and what the Benefits are, see Section III.

There is a maximum reimbursement amount (see “List of Benefits”). Not all charges are eligible and some charges are eligible only to a limited extent.

There is also a Conversion Plan that may apply after a person ceases to be covered under ARAG Legal Insurance (see conversion).

Part III – Additional Benefits

Online Legal Tools and Resources

This part of the benefit program provides Insureds the opportunity to receive services online. There is no fee for these services.

Tax Services

This part of the plan provides you with year-round access to experienced tax specialists. You can call toll-free for a one-on-one consultation if you have questions or need advice regarding your personal, non-business related tax matters.

Identity Theft Protection

This part of the plan provides access to Single-Bureau Child Identity Monitoring, Internet Surveillance and Child Monitoring services. If a member experiences identity theft, Restoration Specialists are available to help with Full-Service Identity Restoration and Lost Wallet Services. Identity Theft Insurance is also included, providing coverage up to $1 million* for expenses associated with restoring the member’s identity. These are services that do not involve an office visit. There is no fee for these services.

Change of Address Monitoring

Alerts you if a change of address request has been submitted to the U.S. Postal Service for your address.

Financial Education and Counseling Services

This part of the plan provides access to a Financial Counselor who can provide guidance and education on a wide range of financial topics – cash and debt management, budgeting, retirement planning, student loans and more. These are services that do not involve an office visit. There is no fee for these services.

Caregiving Services

This part of the benefit offers access to Network Attorneys and other professionals who can help find caregiving options for parents or grandparents. You can talk with an Eldercare Advocate who can assess your eldercare needs, answer questions, and help develop care plans to meet specific caregiving needs. They can also send a personalized information guide with a list of assisted living facilities, nursing homes or healthcare agencies, including comparative quality-of-care ratings and reports on thousands of facilities and agencies. They can also search for available assisted living facilities, nursing homes, home healthcare agencies and adult day care providers and their rates then negotiate discounts for facilities when available.

Reduced Fee Benefit for Non-Covered Matters

This part of the benefit program offers reduced fees of at least 25% off the Network Attorney’s standard hourly fees, for services not covered and not excluded.

Reduced Contingency Fee

This part of the benefit program provides caps on the percentage of any settlement arrangements on contingency fee cases. Fees for Network Attorneys are capped at 25% for initial trial/settlement and 30% for subsequent appeal proceedings.

B. Pre-Existing Conditions

Any legal matter that occurs or is initiated prior to the effective date of an Insured will be considered excluded and

*Eligibility, coverage, limitations and exclusions are governed by a separate coverage document. Please see the identity theft plan summary for details.
no benefits will apply. ARAG defines this as an event covered by this policy whose initiation date will be considered the earlier of the date (a) written notice of a legal dispute is sent or filed by you or received by you; or (b) a ticket or citation is issued; or (c) an attorney is hired.

C. Freedom of Choice of an Attorney

An Insured may choose any attorney to provide legal representation. Except for the provisions of the Benefits and the requirement of information for claim processing, neither ARAG nor LLNS will interfere with the Insured’s Attorney. The Attorney’s obligation will be only with and to the Insured. If an Insured chooses to use a Non-Network Attorney the Non-Network Attorney benefit schedule will apply.

D. Confidentiality

An Insured is assured full confidentiality with respect to calls and problems discussed with any Service Provider or Attorney with respect to claims submitted for Legal Representation under ARAG Legal Insurance.

E. Reimbursement of Legal Fees

The Benefit amount payable for legal services furnished to an Insured is the amount of the eligible charges for those legal services, but not more than these limits.

- For Legal Representation by a Network Attorney, see the limits determined from the Schedule of Benefits list of legal services in Section III.
- For Legal Representation by a Non-Network Attorney, see the reimbursement amounts shown in the Schedule of Benefits in Section III.
- Only one Benefit shall be payable for all legal services arising out of a single cause of action or event resulting in the need for the legal services. ARAG will decide which Benefit shall be payable.

If a court awards Attorney fees to an Insured in connection with covered Benefits, ARAG may require the Insured to assign all rights of recovery of the legal fees to the extent of the payment that was made by them. If an assignment is sought, an Insured must cooperate with ARAG.

F. Eligible Charges

A charge is an eligible charge if all these conditions are met:

- It is for a covered legal service furnished to an Insured while the benefit program is in effect;
- The service involves an Insured’s personal legal matters and is contained in the List of Benefits; and
- The person is an Insured when the service is furnished.

G. Extension of Benefits

If coverage for you or one of your covered dependents is terminated, your legal services coverage (except Telephone Legal Advice and Consultation) will be extended to cover legal services in progress prior to the date the coverage terminated until the services are completed.

H. Conversion

To receive UltimateAdvisor Conversion Plan information and to enroll online, visit the ARAG Legal Center at ARAGLegalCenter.com and enter Access Code 15601LLL. Or, call an ARAG Customer Care Specialist toll-free at 800-247-4184 (TTY 800-383-4184) to request plan information and enrollment materials.

Complete and sign the Enrollment Form, (and a blank voided check or required savings account information if choosing the bank draft option), and mail to: ARAG, ATTN: Eligibility, 400 Locust Street, Suite 480, Des Moines, IA 50309 or fax to 515-246-8816.

ARAG must receive these materials – which include arrangements for premium payment – within 90 days of the disqualifying event.

Section III

A. Schedule of Benefits

Note: You must have family participation in order for your eligible dependents to utilize the List of Benefits.

The List of Benefits applies to an Insured when the Schedule of Benefits specifically states that Benefit. It includes only Benefits included in the list. However, if the law of jurisdiction where the Benefit is furnished uses legal terms that differ from those in the list below, ARAG will determine the equivalent Benefit from the list below.

The benefit year is a 12-month period based on a calendar year. A Benefit may be furnished for more than one insured in a Family Unit with respect to the same event or cause of action resulting in the need for that Benefit. In that case, only one Benefit will be considered to have been furnished.

(NO fictional date, etc.) (NOTE: The limits in this list are the maximum amount ARAG will pay for covered services. For paid-in-full benefits, an insured will not pay a Network Attorney any attorney’s fees. For benefits that have an hourly or dollar limitation on ARAG’s payment, ARAG will cover the amount stated in the list. Any attorney’s fees in excess of this limit will be charged directly to the insured by the Network Attorney at a 25% reduction from the attorney’s normal hourly rate. If a Non-Network Attorney is used, the amounts payable under that Benefit may be up to these limits.)

Network Attorney
If you have a problem with a Network Attorney in the handling of a legal matter covered under ARAG Legal Insurance, and you and the attorney cannot resolve it, a written grievance is required. ARAG will provide you with the form and information about filing the grievance with us.

If you are unable to find a Network Attorney, we guarantee you the opportunity to receive in-network benefits from an attorney. Our Customer Care Center will work closely with you to ensure you receive covered legal services through an attorney in your area.

You have the right to file a complaint with the State Bar Association about your Attorney at any time.

Claim and Appeal Procedures
If you believe you may be entitled to benefits, or you are in disagreement with any determination, that has been made, you may present a claim to ARAG.

You must follow the claim and review procedure carefully and completely and you must file your claim before the deadlines explained below. If you do not do so, you will give up important legal rights.

You must file your claim for benefits with ARAG within one year after you knew or reasonably should have known of the principal facts on which your claim is based. After you file your claim, you must complete the entire claim and review procedure before you can sue over your claim. It is important that you include all the facts and arguments that you want considered during the claim and review procedure. Your claim for Plan benefits will be subject to a full and fair review.

If your claim is wholly or partially denied, ARAG will provide you with a written notice of this denial. This written notice must be provided to you within a reasonable period of time (generally 90 days) after the receipt of your claim by ARAG. The written notice will contain the following information:

- The specific reason or reasons for the denial;
- The specific reference on the Benefit Program provisions on which the denial is based;
- A description of any additional information or material necessary to correct your claim and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary; and
- Appropriate information as to the steps to be taken if you or your beneficiary wishes to submit your claim for review.

If your claim has been denied and you wish to submit your claim for review, you must follow the Claims Review Procedure describe below:

- Upon the denial of your claim for benefits, you may file your claim for review, in writing, with ARAG.
- YOU MUST FILE THE CLAIM FOR REVIEW NO LATER THAN 60 DAYS AFTER YOU HAVE RECEIVED WRITTEN NOTIFICATION OF THE DENIAL OF YOUR CLAIM FOR BENEFITS.
- You may review all pertinent documents relating to the denial of your claim and submit any issues and comments, in writing, to ARAG.

Your claim for review will be given a full and fair review. If your claim is denied, ARAG will provide you with written notice of this denial within 60 days after ARAG’s receipt of your written claim for review. There may be times when this 60-day period may be extended. For example, this extension may be made where there are special circumstances that are communicated to you in writing within the 60-day period. If there is an extension, a decision shall be made as soon as possible, but not later than 120 days after the receipt by ARAG of your claim for review. ARAG’s decision on your claim for review will be communicated to you in writing and will include specific references to the pertinent Benefit Program provisions on which the decision was based.

You may, at your own expense, have an attorney or other representative act on your behalf, but ARAG reserves the right to require your written authorization before providing information to a third party. ARAG also reserves the right to delegate its authority to make decisions.

If you file your claim within the required time and complete the entire claim and review procedure and your claim is still denied, you may sue over your claim unless you have executed a release of claims that includes a release of your claim for benefits. However, you must commence that suit within 30 months after you knew or reasonably should have known of the principal facts on which your claim is based or, if earlier, six months after the claim and review procedure is completed.

Section VII
Coordination of Benefits

ARAG Legal Insurance contains a non-profit provision coordinating it with other Legal Benefit Programs under which you or your covered dependents may be covered so that the total benefits will not exceed 100% of the allowable expense.

An “allowable expense” is any expense covered, at least in part, by one of the plans. “Plans” means these types of legal services benefits: (a) coverage under a governmental program or provide or required by statute, or (b) group insurance or other coverage for a group of individuals, whether insured or uninsured. This includes prepayment, group practice or individual practice coverage. When a claim is made the primary plan pays its benefits with out regard to any other plans. The secondary plans adjust their benefits so that the total benefits available will not exceed the allowable expense. No plan pays more that it would without the coordination provision. A plan without a coordinating provision is always the primary plan. If all plans have such a provision:

1. the plan covering the individual directly rather than as the dependent, is primary and the others secondary;
2. if a child is covered under both parents’ plans, the plan of the parent have the same birthday, the plan that covered the individual longer is primary; but when the parents are separated or divorced, their plans pay in this order:
   (a) if a court decree has established financial responsibility for the child's legal expenses, the plan of the parent with this responsibility;
   (b) the plan of the parent with the custody of the child;
   (c) the plan of the spouse married to the parent with custody of the child;
3. if neither (1) nor (2) apply, the plan covering the individual the longest is primary.

When your plan is a secondary plan and its payment is reduced to consider the primary plan's benefits, a record is kept of the reduction. This amount will be used to increase your Legal Benefit Program’s payment on any later claims in the same calendar year – to the extent there are allowable expenses that would not otherwise be fully paid by your ARAG Legal Insurance Benefit Program and others.
